TASTING NOTES

Brilliant and clean colour. The nose opens up to aromas of crunchy red fruits and spices. On the palate, no tannins, but fruit and a drinkable juice that you want to drink another swig. Pairings with tapas of all kinds, charcuterie and firm cheese.

PRODUCT NOTES

Located in the center of Spain, 15 kilometers from the cellar, the 725-meter vineyards outline an authentic and characteristic landscape typical of La Mancha. A natural enclave of 4,300 hectares, owned by Bodegas Latúe, it is one of the largest ecological vineyards in Europe. The unique conditions of the grape, provided by a rare rain and a pebbly coppery brown on limestone soil, give the wines an incomparable quality and personality. ORGANIC & VEGAN

PRODUCTION NOTES

Vinification takes place in stainless steel vats to keep the freshness and crunchiness of the fruit.
