TASTING NOTES

Intense and brilliant color. The aromas of red berries, plum and cherry jam are vibrant with delicate herbal notes including black pepper and juniper. Elegant profile, with supple tannins and long persistence. Pairings with arancini, caponata, meat on the bbq and pasta.

PRODUCT NOTES

Soria Perricone is the result of a long experimental research focused on the recovery project of this minor vine belonging to the viticultural Sicilian tradition. The Perricone grapes from which Firriato produces this Soria Perricone, are another massal selection of Perricone owned by the winery that differs from the "Ribeca" one.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Traditional red maceration in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperature. Aging for 9 months in French barrels with an annual production of 13,500 bottles.
