ABOUT THIS WINERY

All wine lovers immediately recognize the yellowish label adorned with the head of Bacchus by Louis Jadot, who is one of the most famous emblematic figures in wine. At the head of hundreds of plots in great wine-growing Burgundy, Maison Louis Jadot has been working its Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Gamay and Aligoté vines for two centuries.

TASTING NOTES

Deep color with garnet reflections. Open nose with aromas of blackcurrant, violet and undergrowth. The texture on the palate is generous, opulent, marked by aromas of wild strawberries and sour cherries, enhanced by silky tannins of impressive aromatic complexity. Nice freshness on the finish. Pair with grilled tuna, beef tartare and hard cheeses.

PRODUCT NOTES

The Santenay appellation is located south of the Côte de Beaune. The "en Gatsulards" vineyard is located opposite the Clos de Malte, slightly higher. The ground is very stony and steep, difficult to work. Oriented full South and has the particularity of heating up very quickly. It is also located in a very windy place.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Manual harvest, sorted and destemmed. Aging for around 18 months in our cooperage's barrels, about a third of which are new.
