ABOUT THIS WINERY

All wine lovers immediately recognize the yellowish label adorned with the head of Bacchus by Louis Jadot, who is one of the most famous emblematic figures in wine. At the head of hundreds of plots in great wine-growing Burgundy, Maison Louis Jadot has been working its Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Gamay and Aligoté vines for two centuries.

TASTING NOTES

The color is intense. The loose bouquet is inspired by wild blackberry, dried prune and blackcurrant. Age will add musky touches to it. The flavors are generally tannic and endowed with a good flexibility. Pairings with veal chop, duck breast and rabbit rillettes.

PRODUCT NOTES

The most recent A.O.C. of Burgundy (1987) promoted to the rank of communal appellation. Marsannay is the only village producing red, rosé and white wine. This vineyard is exposed to the East-South in the commune of Chenôve. The soils are dark brown, dry, of limestone-marl-clay composition, with pebbles and gravel favorable to good natural drainage. Le Clos du Roy is one of the climats strongly claimed as Premier Cru in the near future.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The harvest is manual, carefully sorted by hand and then destemmed. The maceration of the grapes takes place in open wooden or stainless steel vats for 3 to 4 weeks. The aging lasts about 18 months in the barrels of our cooperage, of which about a third are new.
