ABOUT THIS WINERY

Gregory Hecht and François Bannier have become partners by sharing the same passion for the immense little-known vineyard which stretches from Provence to Languedoc, and have given themselves the mission of making it shine by shaping their own products. Each of their wines, blended from different grape varieties and plots, is the fruit of a mature common reflection.

TASTING NOTES

Crunchy and complex, rich, full and ripe but also precise and extremely elegant with aromas of black fruits, garrigue and leather. Undoubtedly, it has been the wine for several decades. Pairings with lamb and grilled vegetables on the BBQ

PRODUCT NOTES

Like all our Crus, Bandol is based on a blend of several terroirs within the appellation. Thus, the deep wines of the Chemin de l'argile are associated with those of the limestone scree around Saint Cyr. To the far east, in the municipality of Sainte Anne d'Evenos, the coldest in the area, benefiting from maritime entrances, we have selected a supply that brings freshness and distinction.

PRODUCTION NOTES

20 months in tuns then assembly of the different provenances and 6 months in concrete vats
