ABOUT THIS WINERY

Gregory Hecht and François Bannier have become partners by sharing the same passion for the immense little-known vineyard which stretches from Provence to Languedoc, and have given themselves the mission of making it shine by shaping their own products. Each of their wines, blended from different grape varieties and plots, is the fruit of a mature common reflection.

TASTING NOTES

An explosive nose of white fruits, pear and quince but also floral notes of elderberry and citrus. A Glass of Mentino is not just for aperitifs; it has a fairly structured body which allows it to accompany terrines, grilled fish and vegetables, asparagus and artichokes.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Direct pressing in whole grapes, light settling with cold stabilization. Fermentation at low temperature in a reducing medium. Light fining and filtration before bottling.
