ABOUT THIS WINERY

Nestled in the foothills of the Wairau Valley, carved by powerful glacial and tectonic forces, the Clos Henri Estate sits upon some of the Marlborough's most fascinating soils. Headed by members of the famous winegrowing family of Henri Bourgeois, from Sancerre, France, the Estate has been meticulously cared for since its establishment in 2000.

TASTING NOTES

Garnet red color. Floral aromas of candied cherries, mint and strawberries. Silky on the palate with additional flavors of red summer fruits. Notes of blood oranges and plums. The finish is crisp and fragrant. Pairings with white meats and Lamb

PRODUCT NOTES

Our new Estate Range replaces the Petit Clos – showing vivacity, concentration and brightness, the Estate wines are crafted from both our glacial stones and windblown clay terroirs. Rich in its glacial lands, the estate has one of the most varied terroirs in the Marlborough Valley. Marked by three distinct geological periods, the soil is made up of layers of clay.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The Clos Henri Pinot Noir 2019 begins its fermentation in stainless steel tanks before being aged in French oak barrels of 7,500 liters for 11 months.
