ABOUT THIS WINERY

Nestled in the foothills of the Wairau Valley, carved by powerful glacial and tectonic forces, the Clos Henri Estate sits upon some of the Marlborough's most fascinating soils. Headed by members of the famous winegrowing family of Henri Bourgeois, from Sancerre, France, the Estate has been meticulously cared for since its establishment in 2000.

TASTING NOTES

Notes of ripe peaches and candied citrus are superimposed on a subtle approach of elderflower. Intensely rich, yet balanced, the palate offers weight and texture with good mineral tension. Pairings with pan-fried scallops and salmon.

PRODUCT NOTES

Clos Henri Otira Sauvignon Blanc takes its name from the ancient ice age that formed this exceptional terroir of Glacial Stones of Otira. Otira is the purest expression of its site. The age of the vines is between 13 and 18 years old.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The fermentation took place in 85% stainless steel and 10% old French oak barrels. The wine was then aged on fine lees for 8 months with stirring on the lees, to obtain a round Sauvignon Blanc with body and mouthfeel. An additional aging of 6 months in vats and barrels is used.
