ABOUT THIS WINERY

A bottle of C.V.N.E. is filled with 130 years of love story between Rioja wines and its lovers. This great wine-growing region shares 545 hectares of its fabulous terroirs with the masters of the Compagnie Viticole du Nord de Espagne, who have been producing Cune, Imperial and Contino for decades, combining today the best modern techniques with the orchestrating tradition. their worldwide reputation.

TASTING NOTES

Deep garnet color with purple reflections. The nose is very intense with a wide aromatic palette. The entry in the mouth is soft with a tannin which balances perfectly with the sweetness of the wine as well as a touch of acidity which gives it freshness and length. Pairing with grilled meats on the BBQ.

PRODUCT NOTES

The grapes come from our own 40 year old vines from a small 2 hectare plot called La Virgen, in the area known as San Cristóbal, in the village of Labastida, Rioja Alavesa.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Fermentation of delicately crushed grapes with native yeasts in small vats. Aged 12 months in oak barrels.
