ABOUT THIS WINERY

Château de Cruzeau is located in the south of the Pessac-Léognan wine region, in the Graves. Acquired in 1973, then completely reconstituted by André Lurton, the vineyard, located on beautiful gravel ridges, facing south, today produces elegant wines of great finesse. The reds are aged for one year in stave oak barrels and the whites (all Sauvignon) are fermented and aged in barrels.

TASTING NOTES

Beautiful red color with purple highlights. Nose of red fruits (cherry, strawberry, raspberry) with some vanilla notes. The attack is marked by a nice touch of sweetness and some more woody notes, characterized by a lot of roundness, with fruit notes which very quickly mask the woody notes and dominate the palate. Pairings with duck breast and mushroom risotto.

PRODUCT NOTES

71 hectares with the average age of the vines of 20 years

PRODUCTION NOTES

Aging for 12 months in barrels (30-40% new) with quarterly racking.
