TASTING NOTES

It's the dynamic spirit of Xinomavro in an elegant and refreshing rose. This seasonal wine has a light body, fresh acidity and aromas of peach and strawberry.

Pairings with Mediterranean cuisine.

PRODUCT NOTES

The grapes come from the Agios Panteleimon wine growing area, in the Amyndeon appellation, in Florina, northwest Greece. The high altitude (700 m) and the poor sandy soils of the estate make it possible to produce wines of rare finesse and aromatic character.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The must also comes from the bleeding of Xinomavro "Kali Riza", more concentrated in phenolic ingredients. The selected yeasts give a flowery nose. The wine ages for 4 months with regular stirring (1 to 2 times per week)
