ABOUT THIS WINERY

Gregory Hecht and François Bannier have become partners by sharing the same passion for the immense little-known vineyard which stretches from Provence to Languedoc, and have given themselves the mission of making it shine by shaping their own products. Each of their wines, blended from different grape varieties and plots, is the fruit of a mature common reflection.

TASTING NOTES

Aromas of white-fleshed fruits such as vine peach, delicate herbaceous notes of tarragon, bergamot and lime blossom. The taste is chiseled and refreshing with a hint of sweet spices. Pairings with cod accras and summer salad

PRODUCT NOTES

The Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence vineyards are planted on a vast limestone plateau which extends to the north of the city as far as the Durance. Benefiting from a well-tempered Mediterranean climate, our winegrowers apply the principles of environmentally friendly viticulture. Generous sunshine and cool summer nights are optimal conditions for producing deep and aromatic rosés.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Aging in concrete and stainless steel vats
