ABOUT THIS WINERY

Gregory Hecht and François Bannier have become partners by sharing the same passion for the immense little-known vineyard which stretches from Provence to Languedoc, and have given themselves the mission of making it shine by shaping their own products. Each of their wines, blended from different grape varieties and plots, is the fruit of a mature common reflection.

TASTING NOTES

With its very floral Syrah on sandstone and limestone clay, the Saint-Chinian is greedy, fresh and harmonious, combining the seductive fruit of Grenache and the structure of Mourvèdre when ripe. It brings together both expressions of tulips, irises and lily of the valley and a stony side that recalls stormy rains on hot stones.

Pairings with olive tapenade, charcuterie and BBQ

PRODUCTION NOTES

Selection of grapes grown organically in Saint-Chinian on clay-limestone soils. (Saint-Chinian, Combejean, Pierrerie and Assignan)
