TASTING NOTES

White gold color, clear and brilliant wine. Nose which opens towards delicate aromas of citrus and apple with a slightly floral side. The palate is lively, fresh and dense with a mineral touch reminiscent of the Chablis terroir.

Pairings as an aperitif, with smoked salmon, scallops and mushroom risotto.

PRODUCT NOTES

With this Chablis la Sereine, the Chablisienne cooperative delivers a vintage that embodies the spirit of the valley and the wines that have been produced there for centuries. The terroirs, located throughout the valley, with all possible exposures, have in common that they offer the Chardonnay, vines aged around 30 years here, Upper Kimmeridgian soils which give the minerality so characteristic of Chablis.

PRODUCTION NOTES

After vinification in thermoregulated vats, aging takes place in vats and small oak barrels on fine lees, for 12 months.
