ABOUT THIS WINERY

The wine reputation of the Douro region in Portugal is well established, and Quinta da Romaneira is one of its strongest vectors. By diversifying its native grape varieties with French varieties, and after having renovated all its winemaking facilities, the Quinta de Romaneira is now living its finest hours of glory, in a story of passion that has lasted for 260 years.

TASTING NOTES

Fresh and elegant with supple and affordable tannins, as it expresses the beauty of the origins of Douro. It is delicious, round, smooth and open, with seductive three balanced fruit and fresh, silky tannins. Pairings with cod croquettes, Portuguese chicken and deli.

PRODUCT NOTES

The Sino, which means "bell" in Portuguese, pays homage to the history of Romaneira by referring to the bell that hangs above the door of the Quinta.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Vinification in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperature. The conical shaped tanks have been specially designed for 18 months in French oak barrels.
