ABOUT THIS WINERY

All wine lovers immediately recognize the yellowish label adorned with the head of Bacchus by Louis Jadot, who is one of the most famous emblematic figures in wine. At the head of hundreds of plots in great wine-growing Burgundy, Maison Louis Jadot has been working its Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Gamay and Aligoté vines for two centuries.

TASTING NOTES

Bright and sustained color. Opulent notes of candied pear, wet straw and lemon. The palate is well balanced and leads to a soft and subtle finish.

Pairings with zucchini fritters, salmon tartare and chicken yakitori.

PRODUCT NOTES

The Beaune vineyard, located between Savigny les Beaune and Pommard. There are no Grands Crus in this town, but 36 Premiers Crus. The Beaune vineyard is almost on a slope and benefits from a wide classification of its climates as 1er crus including "Les Bressandes". Planted 20 years ago, it is located in the northern part of the vineyard, at the top of the coast. It is considered one of the finest premier crus.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The harvest is manual in small boxes and the grapes are fermented in barrels from which we cover a third of which are covered with approximately 15 months before bottling.
