ABOUT THIS WINERY

All wine lovers immediately recognize the yellowish label adorned with the head of Bacchus by Louis Jadot, who is one of the most famous emblematic figures in wine. At the head of hundreds of plots in great wine-growing Burgundy, Maison Louis Jadot has been working its Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Gamay and Aligoté vines for two centuries.

TASTING NOTES

Ruby color. Notes of raspberries and cherries with a hint of spice and violet. Juicy, vibrant and aromatic Beaujolais with tangy fruit notes.

Pairings with red tuna, grilled meat and cold cuts.

PRODUCT NOTES

The village of Lantignié is one of the three official villages producing Beaujolais-Village. It is located next to Régnié. The Lantignié vines are planted on predominantly granite soil with a little clay. The Domaine's vineyard, located at the top of the ancient crystal mines of the commune of Lantignié, whose veins are particularly rich in quartz and fluorite, covers just over six hectares.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The vinification and aging of the different wines of this blend take place in stainless steel vats in order to preserve fruit and freshness. The wines are then reunited before the preparation for bottling.
