ABOUT THIS WINERY

All wine lovers immediately recognize the yellowish label adorned with the head of Bacchus by Louis Jadot, who is one of the most famous emblematic figures in wine. At the head of hundreds of plots in great wine-growing Burgundy, Maison Louis Jadot has been working its Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Gamay and Aligoté vines for two centuries.

TASTING NOTES

Silky wine, quite colorful, structured with elegant tannins, presenting aromas of small red and black fruits, also liquorice, then animal aromas as it ages.

Pairings with grilled, roasted or stewed red meats

PRODUCT NOTES

This name is common to several villages. It covers all or part of Brochon, Fixin, Prémieux, Prissey, Comblanchien, Corgoloin. The 3.5 ha Le Vaucrain plot was acquired by Maison Louis Jadot in 1996. It is located in the commune of Comblanchien, near the famous 1er Cru of Nuits Saint-Georges: Clos de la Maréchale.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The harvest is manual, carefully sorted by hand and then destemmed. The maceration of the grapes takes place in open wooden or stainless steel vats for 3 to 4 weeks. The vats are punched twice a day during fermentation. The aging lasts about 18 months in the barrels of our cooperage, of which about a third are new.
