ABOUT THIS WINERY

From its beginnings as a family winery named after the two sons of its wine family founders, to the current incarnation as a Columbia Valley AVA star with an iconic Leavenworth tasting room, Ryan Patrick will carry on to produce affordable wines with a serious advantage.

TASTING NOTES

Aromas of apple and pear with some honeydew melon, citrus and floral notes. On the palate refreshing yet savory with a fresh fruit driven mid-palate and an elegant, pleasing finish.

Pairings with pork rib, seafood and cheese.

PRODUCT NOTES

Winemaker Comments: "We are creating an approachable, savory and refreshing style of Chardonnay, sourcing fruit from warmer sites in the Columbia Valley to lend a rich and ripe profile to the wine. Malolactic fermentation, along with sur lie aging, allows for savory characters to develop, while tank fermentation maintains fresh acidity." – Jeremy Santo, Winemaker

PRODUCTION NOTES

The grapes were gently pressed and the juice was cold settled. After racking off the solids, the juice was inoculated and allowed to ferment slowly for approximately 30 days, until dryness. At that point, the juice was chilled to halt the fermentation and stabilize the wine. Aging: Stainless steel for five months.
