ABOUT THIS WINERY

A bottle of C.V.N.E. is filled with 130 years of love story between Rioja wines and its lovers. This great wine-growing region shares 545 hectares of its fabulous terroirs with the masters of the Compagnie Viticole du Nord de Espagne, who have been producing Cune, Imperial and Contino for decades, combining today the best modern techniques with the orchestrating tradition. their worldwide reputation.

TASTING NOTES

Cherry color. Opulent, intense and very complex nose with aromas of black and red fruits well integrated with toasted notes. The palate is persistent and powerful, polished and well balanced with silky tannins. Pairings with red meats, lambs and spicy chickens.

PRODUCT NOTES

The monarchs bestowed the title Contino on senior officers of the royal family's guard.

PRODUCTION NOTES

24 months in French and American oak barrels and 36 months in bottle in underground cellars.
