ABOUT THIS WINERY

Another Portuguese pearl of the Upper Douro Valley, this family business brings together six farms in the village of Torre de Moncorvo, on both sides of the river. From old indigenous grape varieties, the House produces modern wines like its Cistus, standard bearer both of the philosophy of the Quinta, but also of its desire to offer its bottles in an exceptional quality / price ratio.

TASTING NOTES

Cistus is a red wine with a purplish garnet color, an elegant and juicy palate with lots of ripe fruit aromas, hints of vanilla, elegant and round tannins all in balance. It is a wonderful and refined wine from the Douro Valley. Pairings with Portuguese chicken and cod fritters.

PRODUCT NOTES

All the wines of Quinta do Vale da Perdiz - marketed under the brand "Cistus" - are made from grapes of the Superior Douro, and in the great majority from the vineyards of the Fernandes family, which owns the company, with a superfi total company of around 50 ha divided into six "Quintas"

PRODUCTION NOTES

Vinification: Fermented in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperature. Part of the final batch (around 50%) is aged in 2nd and 3rd year barrels.
