

Maison Louis Jadot Meursault 1er Cru Porusot 2017

89-91 Antonio Galloni
vinous

“ The 2017 Meursault Porusots 1er Cru has a lovely bouquet, with white flower scents complementing the hazelnut and linseed aromas that burst from the glass. The palate is well balanced with a fine bead of acidity and slightly viscous toward the second half, revealing touches of marzipan and mango, though there is a counterbalancing spiciness that keeps everything focused. I’m not sure about its long-term prospects, but it should give a lot of pleasure over the next decade. (DIAM GC closure) ”
