

Paul Jaboulet Aîné Cornas Domaine de Saint-Pierre 2019

“ Planted at 400 meters above sea level and near the top of the hill, this is always one of the last parcels to be harvested in any given vintage. The 2019 Cornas Domaine de Saint Pierre has a bit of lifted, minty character on the nose alongside ripe blueberries and cassis. It shows more pure fruit than the 2018 but also a bit more concentration. Medium to full-bodied, tannic and more "Cornas-like," it's firm, streamlined and long on the palate.
