

Maison Louis Jadot
Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Estournelles
Saint-Jacques 2016

90-93 Antonio Galloni
vinous

“Bright, full red. Less floral and high-pitched on the nose than the Lavaux SaintJacques, and not currently showing that wine's crushed-stone minerality. In a more medicinal, muscular style, conveying a strong impression of punch but not the delicacy or detail of the Lavaux. Rich and filled in but more about savory minerality and soil tones than flowers and spices. It's possible that this sample was drawn from a less-fresh barrel; I look forward to following up on this wine from bottle next year.
