

La Chablisienne Chablis 1er Cru Mont de Milieu 2012

91 POINTS

“ This is exceptionally pretty and more elegant than I typically find it with its cool and only mildly exotic mix of both white and yellow orchard fruit, tidal pool and algae hints. The middle weight flavors are quite rich and not quite as refined as the nose but there is a lovely sense of underlying tension on the mineral-inflected and palate coating finish that, like several of the wines in the range, displays a hint of bitter lemon. ”

About Burghound.com

Burghound.com is the result of a nearly lifelong passion for the wines of Burgundy. For more than 30 years, I have been collecting the wines and visiting the region. Each year I spend nearly five months visiting, researching, tasting, exploring and evaluating. Burgundy is my obsession really. Expanding on my coverage of the coveted pinot noir grape, each issue provides continuous coverage of both Oregon and California pinot noir, with rotating coverage of Champagne and occasional special reports from other pinot producing regions.
